TODAY

This week, we'll look at our relationships with others in the church. Thinking small with our relationships with our brothers and sisters in Christ. Each of us only has so many possible relational "connectors" we can offer others for deep relationships. What are we doing with ours? Are we trying to connect with too many people and our relationships are shallow? Or too few people and we're feeling lonely and isolated? This week we examine how to think small with others in a healthy way!
