Dear Chapel Family,

The Constitution Committee met again on Thursday, June 24, to further discuss, consider, and process the things we've learned and experienced thus far in our fact-finding measures. Each member of the Committee remains uniquely grateful for the strength and support they have received through your heartfelt prayers.

Our work continues, with help from The Center Consulting Group, and we remain optimistic that our present inquiry will come to a close within 90 days of the first email we sent to you, on May 21.

To that end, the Constitution Committee anticipates receiving a formal presentation, in-person, from The Center, during the week of July 5. We look forward to communicating our next update to you shortly thereafter.

May the Lord continue giving us grace to wait upon him in prayer, asking for the truth to be made known and for the wisdom and courage of the Constitution Committee.

Sola Gratia
